President’s Report

Jay welcomed new board members Maggie Nolin and George Lasota and remarked to the pleasure of having in-person productive meetings again. Jay cited that the board’s main focus now will be the upcoming Library Fair on September 18, 2021 and introduced the Fair Coordinator, Julie Mc Caffrey.

Director’s Report

Cindy reported that the library doors have been open since April 26 for six days a week. The library will not be open on Sundays or Tuesday evenings and this schedule will remain through the summer months due to personnel issues and budget. Curbside pick-up of materials is still available, though demand for that service has declined. Cindy plans to survey the community to gauge what library hours would be most preferred.

Cindy thanked the interns who were hired for the month of May as part of the JJHS Senior Internship Experience with Amazon gift cards.

WLS IT services are still being discussed among library directors. There will most likely be a large increase in fees for 2022. Wireless equipment update, new wiring and access point will be needed.

Email blasts go out on Thursdays to advertise upcoming programs for kids, teens and adults. Summer reading program will begin and will be a hybrid of in-person and remote activities. Liz is writing a direct mail appeal letter to be sent out in June. The library will have copies of the town’s steering committee’s comprehensive plan survey.

Fundraising Committee

Andy touched base with vintner John Vuolo of the South Salem Winery about hosting another virtual wine tasting in the future. Appeal letter to be mailed to residents later this month. The main focus for fundraising will be the Library Fair in September.

Library Fair

Julie McCaffrey has contacted past fair chairs to ask specifically about their need for volunteers and has created an online as well as hard copy volunteer sign-up sheets. Julie has already had a great response from friends. New additions to the fair will include activities such as “touch a truck”, face painting, and garden competitions. The fair will be spread out more this year to be in compliance with Covid regulations. Volunteers are greatly needed for the Donation Days in August.
