Letter from the Director

We take the mission of the Lewisboro Library and commitment to serve as a community center and the heart of the community seriously. This commitment is reflected in our community-oriented programs, including the Citizen Preparedness program with the New York State Citizen Preparedness Corp, our Volunteer Fair which brings local nonprofits together with volunteers, first aid workshops with the Lewisboro Volunteer Ambulance corps, and Community Crafters which creates seasonal gifts to brighten the days of our senior citizens.

In addition, we provide welcoming space for the community to meet, study and work remotely. We encourage teen volunteerism with our Teen Advisory Board, foster early childhood literacy and provide a supportive space for caregivers to meet and connect with each other.

2025 was a very successful year for the Library by many measures, despite some challenges. We are again open 7 days a week including Sundays and Tuesday evenings. We welcomed new children's and teen librarians who have proven to be an excellent fit for both our library and the community. Library usage increased across key indicators, including in-person visits, program attendance, and circulation of both print and digital materials.

We also completed the installation of LED ceiling lighting, which is more environmentally friendly and cost-effective while significantly improving visibility throughout the building.

During the year, we faced supply chain disruptions when our longtime book distributor, Baker & Taylor, unexpectedly went out of business. This created delays in acquiring new materials for several months. We have since established relationships with new book distribution vendors, which will improve availability going forward. Circulation figures would likely have been even higher without this temporary challenge.

Finally, I would like to thank the Library Board and staff, who work tirelessly to ensure sustainable funding and to fulfill our mission to the community. I am also deeply grateful to our many donors and volunteers. Your continued support makes all of this possible.

Sincerely,

Cindy Rubino

Staff Feature

Please welcome our new youth services staff!

Alexandra Perdroza Children's Librarian

Hello, my name is Miss Ally, and I joined the Lewisboro Library as the Children's Librarian in May of 2025. I am from Connecticut and have been enjoying meeting the South Salem community since starting here. I have a Master's in Library and Information Science from the University of Maryland-College Park. I completed my master's with a focus in youth through their school librarian certification program. This track offered me in-depth training on building a collection and programming across children and young adults. Since coming to Lewisboro, I have been busy curating the collection and developing regular programs including Art and Science Storytime, Advanced Crafts, STEAM, Magic Tree House Book Club and Family Storytime. I am excited to continue to bring more fun and learning through story times, experiments, art and activities here at Lewisboro Library.

Colleen Oakes Teen & Adult Librarian

Hi, my name is Colleen Oakes and I am the teen and adult reference librarian here at Lewisboro Library. In addition to being a full-time young-adult author with several published books, I received my Master's Degree in Library Science in 2024 from the University of North Texas with a focus on reader's advisory and diverse reads. I am passionate about making libraries enticing third spaces, focusing on serving the community, radical hospitality and a shared love of literacy. As the teen librarian, I have been focusing on providing a variety of teen programs that meet teens where they are in this digital, short-attention span age. In addition, I am trying to connect with local teens to see what they need and want from their library. I will continue to plan a wide variety of programs, including passive programs and ongoing programs. I've also recently started running two adult book clubs during the day to serve more of our patrons.
